CREDENTIALS

All media credential requests for SDSU volleyball home games should be directed to assistant sports information director Ryan Sweeter or sports information director Jason Hove at least 24 hours prior to the event.

The sports information office mails credentials if they receive the request a week or more in advance. Otherwise, credentials may be picked up at the Jackrabbit Ticket Office inside the Stanley J. Marshall HPER Center on weekdays from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., or at the Frost Arena ticket table 60 minutes to the start of the event.

SDSU allows courtside access in Frost Arena only to working media. Media requiring access to phone lines and Internet for photo or story transmission should contact the SDSU sports information office in advance of the match to assist in seating assignments, etc.

Live blogging of the description of the event is permitted; however, no live streaming of video of either game action or post-game press conferences is permitted. Video may be archived and posted to web sites following the conclusion of the event.

—ALL CREDENTIALS ARE NON-TRANSFERABLE—

PHOTOGRAPHERS

The South Dakota State Athletic Department asks that photographers (live and still) do not interfere with the sight lines of spectators. Video may be shot from the upper-level track on the east, west and south sides of Frost Arena. At court level, photographers must remain outside the team areas and in a position as to not interfere with the match.

STATISTICS

The South Dakota State University Sports Information Office keeps official statistics and distributes final statistics to teams and members of the media at the conclusion of the match.

POST-MATCH PRESS CONFERENCE

A post-match press conference may be held after select home matches in the Ginn Trophy Room located on the second floor of the Stanley J. Marshall HPER Center. The visiting team goes first, followed by SDSU players and coaches.

The following guidelines apply specifically to Internet sites:

- No more than two people working for the official web site of the opponent and/or its official conference site will be issued credentials.
- Web sites whose content centers around message boards and chat rooms where users can post anonymous information and/or rumors are ineligible for any consideration for credentials or access.
- Credentials will not be granted to any agency operating sites that are in any way affiliated with gambling, or to freelance or fan-based sites not affiliated with a legitimate news-gathering organization.

The final decision for credentials remains at the sole discretion of SDSU sports information personnel. Failure to abide by the guidelines outlined on this page may result in revocation of media credentials.

The South Dakota State University Sports Information Office strives to comply with all legitimate interview requests for Jackrabbit coaches, student-athletes and administrators in a timely fashion.

Interview times can be arranged through the Sports Information office or through the coach of the sport involved, preferably arranged 24 hours in advance Monday through Thursday.

Media members may not contact student-athletes directly without approval.

The SDSU Sports Information office does not release the phone numbers of student-athletes to the media, and return calls must be made collect, or via a toll free number, unless the student-athlete does the interview from the sports information or coaches office.

The media may not interview student-athletes prior to a contest on the day of the game, but may do so 10 minutes after the conclusion of contests by contacting a member of the sports information staff or coaching staff.

The South Dakota State volleyball team enters the second year of the Phil McDaniel era with high hopes and with plenty of experience throughout the roster, with eight upperclassmen on the 16-woman roster, including six seniors.

"Depth makes up competitive on the court against our opponents," second-year head coach Phil McDaniel said. "But more importantly, it makes us competitive each and every time we step on the floor for practice."

Fresh off her second stint with the Team USA A2 squad, senior Kelli Fiegen leads a talented group of middles. Fiegen provides the leadership and quickness to the group, and should get a great deal of attention from opposing blockers.

One of the most consistent players on the team, senior Kaitlin Klingemann played multiple positions in the past, but does most of her damage in the middle.

Wagner Larson redshirted in 2011, but should push for playing time in 2012, in large part because of her energy and her blocking ability. An athletic middle from Canada with a fast arm, Courtney Roberts comes into the season with some injuries, making her a redshirt candidate.

Senior Kelly Herrmann leads the group of four players on the outside. The team's emotional leader, Herrmann brings the most experience on the outside and can be counted on for her ability and leadership.

Margit Hansing saw action last season as a freshman, and should battle for a starting spot as a sophomore in 2012. Kacey Herrmann, Kelly's sister, makes the transition to the outside from the middle where she played in high school, and should battle the older players for playing time.

If newcomer Jocelyn Leichner, who transfers in as a sophomore from New Mexico, can pick up the offensive and defensive systems quickly, she should see plenty of playing time as well on the outside.

Seniors Kelsey Hansen and Bailey Philippot make up the right side of the lineup. Both seniors, Hansen brings experience at the middle and the right side and her size makes her a good match with the opponents outside attackers, while Philippot's experience on both pins makes her a threat to attack from a number of different angles.

One of two setters on the roster, junior Lexi Fowler returns as the only regular setter from the 2011 squad. She became more consistent with her set location in the offseason and her decision-making skills continue to improve as her mental game catches up with her physical skills.

Sydney Howard should push Fowler for playing time after redshirting in 2011. She brings solid blocking ability and can attack the ball as well.

"There's a good chance that we split the setting duties between Fowler and Howard at times this season," McDaniel said.

The Jackrabbits returning starter at Libero, Shay Birath leads a mixed group of older and younger defensive specialists. On pace to become the school's all-time digs leader, Birath continues to improve her consistency in serve receive and the quality of her digs. McDaniel expects her to lead the back row defenders and to serve as the standard for others to mimic.

Junior Amanda Stout should be ready for the start of the season after suffering an injury in the spring. She solidifies the back row and may be one of the better servers on the team.

After redshirting in 2011, Alana Pengilly enters the season eager to learn and brings a high energy level to the team. She also continues to develop into one of the team's better servers and should battle for playing time throughout the season.

True freshman Lizzie Palmer rounds out the Jackrabbit defense. A very solid player in serve receive, her mental attitude and toughness puts her in the mix for some playing time.

Experienced and balanced, the 2012 Jackrabbits should find out just how much they improved in the offseason shortly after the season begins.

"I think that the 2012 schedule provides a good test for our veteran squad," McDaniel said. "Opening the season at a tournament with a Big

The Jacks open the season on Aug. 24, in Iowa City, Iowa at the Hawkeye Challenge against Southeast Missouri State and Iowa, and then close the tournament with their first of two meetings against Valparaiso on Aug. 25. SDSU also plays the Crusaders in Valparaiso, Ind., on Sept. 26.

The second of three preconference tournaments sends the Jackrabbits to Spokane, Wash, for three matches at the Gonzaga Tournament on Aug. 31-Sept. 1. In addition to the host Bulldogs, the Jacks also face Eastern Washington and UC-Riverside in Spokane.

SDSU closes its tournament circuit with a revival of the Jackrabbit Invitational, which returns to Frost Arena for the first time since the 2007 season, on Sept. 7-8.

"The Gonzaga Tournament gives us a chance to play a solid trio of teams over the Labor Day weekend," McDaniel added. "And then getting back to hosting an event here in Frost will be a great lead-in to the start of Summit League Play."

The Summit League schedule begins with a road match at conference newcomer Nebraska-Omaha on Sept. 14; with the conference home-opener coming two days later in a Sunday matinee against two-time defending league champion North Dakota State.

The Bison also host The Summit League Championships on Nov. 16-17, in Fargo, N.D.

VISION, MISSION & VALUES OF THE SDSU ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT

Every undertaking of South Dakota State University is driven by a common force — a relentless commitment to excellence. Within the Athletic Department, excellence is measured by much more than wins and losses. We are committed to providing each and every student-athlete with a comprehensive collegiate experience that is second to none. Every decision that guides our program is made with the student-athlete in mind. Is Athletic Achievement important? Yes, because it is the fundamental purpose of the student-athlete experience. A former South Dakota State assistant who helped guide the 2007 team to the school's first-ever NCAA Division I Tournament appearance, Phil McDaniel took over the Jackrabbit volleyball program after being named the 11th head coach in program history on Feb. 19, 2011.

McDaniel returned to SDSU after three successful years at Drake University, where he reinvigorated a Bulldog program by leading Drake to back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 1996.

After taking over a team that won seven games in 2007, the McDaniel led Bulldogs posted a 12-20 record in his first year, and combined to go 45-23 over the next two seasons, including a pair of Missouri Valley Conference Tournament appearances.

The rebuilding of Drake started in 2008, when Drake posted its highest win total since 1998, but started to take shape in 2009, when the Bulldogs qualified for their first Missouri Valley Conference Tournament since 1998 on the strength of a 10-8, fourth-place league finish. The 22 wins in 2009 marked the most since the 1996 squad posted a 24-4 mark and three players earned all-conference honors in 2009, the first such honors since 2002.

Drake won 23 games in 2010, and again qualified for the MVC Tournament. The 2010 season also saw a Drake player earn first-team all-conference honors for the first time in over a decade.

In addition to the on the court accolades, the Bulldogs also shined under McDaniel's leadership off the court, posting a 3.5 grade-point average in both the 2008-09 and 2009-10 academic years, with an American Volleyball Coaches Association Team Award selection in 2008-09.

Individually, McDaniel coached players earned MVC Scholar Athlete first-team honors three times, along with an honorable mention selection and an ESPN the Magazine Academic All-District VII selection.

An assistant coach at South Dakota State from 2005-07, McDaniel helped the Jackrabbits to a 63-42 overall record, the 2007 Summit League title and the school's first-ever Division I NCAA Tournament appearance in 2007.

During his three-year tenure with the Jacks, he spearheaded recruiting efforts for the SDSU program and monitored academic progress for the Jackrabbits, who earned the AVCA with Game Plan/AVCA Team Academic Awards in 2005 and 2006.

Prior to joining the Jackrabbits as an assistant in 2005, McDaniel spent three seasons as an assistant coach at New Mexico State from 2002-04. The Aggies posted an 86-15 record during his tenure, winning the Sun Belt Conference crown in each of his three campaigns while earning berths in the 2003 and 2004 NCAA Tournaments.

In addition to his duties at New Mexico State, McDaniel was head coach of the Diamondback Volleyball Club in Las Cruces.

A Mt. Zion, Ill., native, McDaniel served as head coach at J.H. Rose High School in Greenville, N.C. from 2000-02, directing the school to a 42-7 record and twice earning Big East Conference 4A Coach of the Year honors in both 2001 and 2001. He also served as director of coaches for the East Carolina Junior Volleyball Club.

McDaniel earned a bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Culver-Stockton College in 1996 and a master's degree in counselor education from the University of Wisconsin-Platteville in 1998. He competed on both the soccer and tennis teams while at Culver-Stockton.

McDaniel and his wife Julie live in Brookings.

As the director of ops for the Gamecocks, Belzung assisted with practice setup and helped out with many of the administrative tasks for the team, including travel and video coordination, but she looks forward to getting back on the sidelines for the Jackrabbits.

Before starting her coaching career, Belzung played for Bobbi Peterson at Northern Iowa as a standout setter for the Panthers over four seasons, where she recorded two triple-doubles in her career, including one in a victory over Clemson in 2006.

An Ankeny, Iowa, native, Belzung starred in the classroom as well, earning the State Farm MVC Good Neighbor Award, an honor recognizing athletes for their excellence in academics, sportsmanship and community service. She also garnered Dean's List recognition in six of her nine semesters at UNI and earned a spot on the inaugural MVC All-Academic first team. Belzung served as a SAAC representative and participated in the NCAA National Leadership Conference.

Belzung graduated with a bachelor's degree in health promotion/environmental health from Northern Iowa in 2008, and completes her master's degree in sport and entertainment management from South Carolina in the spring of 2010.

A 1969 graduate of South Dakota State University, David L. Chicoine became the third alumnus to sit in the South Dakota State University president's office when he took office on Jan. 1, 2007.

The 19th president in school history met his wife, Marcia, whom he spotted in an English class to which he claims perfect attendance—after he noticed her there first, of course.

President Chicoine spent the majority of the next 30 years away from South Dakota State working in higher education at the University of Illinois, where he held administrative posts, including Vice President of Technology and Economic Development and Dean of the College of Agriculture.

While vice president at the University of Illinois, President Chicoine helped launch IllinoisVENTURES, LLC, a seed and early-stage technology investment firm. He also reached new milestones each year in restructuring the university's technology licensing offices.

As its dean, President Chicoine transformed the College of Agriculture, leaving it with seven academic departments and an Information Technology unit in place of the previous 14 administrative units. He raised $134 million in private gifts (surpassing the campaign's goal of $115 million) and increased the endowment to $60 million.

Of the eight siblings in President Chicoine's family, five attended State, including President

Chicoine and his brother Jeff, who finished school here the year before him.

When President Chicoine graduated, he did so alongside former U.S. Senator Tom Daschle and several men and women who work at South Dakota State today.

At State, President Chicoine also met long-time friend and colleague Robert Todd, with whom he worked with almost 30 years at the University of Illinois.

The president and his wife, Marcia, live in Woodbine Cottage. Their family includes son Joshua, a Chicago-based musician; daughter-in-law Laura Ellsworth; granddaughter Sylvie; and their late son Jason.

President Chicoine serves as the 19th president of the University and the 17th to live in the historic cottage.

SDSU DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS: JUSTIN SELL

Justin Sell joined the Jackrabbit staff on May 7, 2009 as the 12th director of athletics at South Dakota State University.

"I love working as part of a team, and that's exactly how we work at SDSU," Sell said. "From President Chicoine, to the faculty and staff, administration, donors and fans, we all work together for the benefit of South Dakota State University and Jackrabbit Athletics."

Sell oversees the Jackrabbits' 21-sport Division I varsity athletics program. Eighteen SDSU teams compete in The Summit League, while football competes in the Missouri Valley Football Conference of the Football Championship Subdivision and wrestling competes as a member of the Western Wrestling Conference. Women's equestrian competes under the umbrella of the National Collegiate Equestrian Association.

Under Sell's leadership, SDSU athletics continues to make strides in athletic competition, in the classroom, in fundraising and in reconnecting with alumni.

Athletically, the Jackrabbits claimed a total of 10 regular and postseason league championships in five different sports since 2009-10. That success earned SDSU The Summit League Commissioner's Cup all-sports trophy following the 2010-11 season, after a runner-up finish the year before. Also in 2010-11, SDSU earned the league's Sportsmanship Award, an award voted upon by their peers.

In the classroom, Jackrabbit student-athletes continually post a grade-point average of 3.2 or higher in more than 70 different majors, which led SDSU to winning The Summit League's Institutional Academic Achievement Award for the 2009-10 academic year and the Missouri Valley Football Conference Academic Award in all four years in the league (2008-11).

In January of 2011, Sell announced a partnership with Learfield Sports, signing a 10-year deal worth $13 million for SDSU athletics.

Learfield Sports quickly established a Brookings-based entity known as "Jackrabbit Sports Properties" that directs all aspects of the partnership, including managing and selling multimedia and sponsorship rights for South Dakota State Athletics.

In addition to the deal with Learfield Sports, Sell directed the implementation of the Letterwinners Club, which provides opportunities for Jackrabbit Athletics to reconnect and stay connected with former student-athletes, while supporting current student-athletes at South Dakota State.

In the years to come, Sell wants to continue reconnecting with former Jackrabbit student-athletes and enhancing the athletic facilities while still maintaining success, both in competition, but more importantly, in the classroom.

On the facilities front, Sell oversaw the completion of the Dykhouse Student-Athlete Center in 2010, and developed the 2025 SDSU Athletic Facilities Master Plan. Additionally, Sell spearheaded efforts to add permanent seating and a press box at Erv Huether Field, chairback seating in both Frost Arena and Coughlin-Alumni Stadium and continues working towards the building of an indoor practice facility and football stadium.

Born in Salem, Ore., and raised in Columbus,

Ohio, Sell came to South Dakota State from the University of Northern Iowa, where he worked in various roles, both at the university and in the community for 10 years. He also worked at Villanova University, Syracuse University, Ohio State University and Bowling Green State University. Sell gained further experience working in the private sector for various sports teams and events.

In the Brookings community, where Sell lives with his wife, Jennie, and their four children: Abbie, Zach, Josh and Eric, he serves as Vice President of the Brookings Chamber of Commerce, Vice President for the Brookings Friends of Baseball and on the Brookings Health System Board of Trustees.

Sell earned his bachelor's degree in sport management from Bowling Green State University (Ohio) in 1991 and completed a master's degree in physical education/sport administration at The Ohio State University in 1992.

THE SUMMIT LEAGUE

#thesummitleague

IUPUI's Chen Ni became the first female in Summit League history to win two NCAA Championships, after winning the platform dive in 2010 and 2012.

As The Summit League enters its fourth decade of Division I athletics, the performance level continues to rise to higher standards. A memorable 2011-12 campaign celebrated numerous record-setting and remarkable achievements for The Summit League, its member schools and student-athletes during the league's 30th anniversary season.

"Ascending" and "improving" are common adjectives used in media coverage of The Summit League as it continues its renaissance. Consisting of nine member institutions with over 3,000 student-athletes competing in 19 championship sports, The Summit League has enjoyed unprecedented success and development in recent history.

Since rebranding as The Summit League in 2007, the league has produced 54 All-Americans, 37 Academic All-America selections and seven NCAA Championships. In the past seven seasons, Summit League teams have achieved final national rankings in six different sports, won NCAA regional championships in two sports and advanced in three additional NCAA team championship tournaments. That level of success carries into both the classroom and athletic competition.

Record-Setting 2011-12 Season

In 2011-12 alone, The Summit League nearly doubled its all-time NCAA Champions total by claiming four national titles. IUPUI's Chen Ni became the first female to win multiple NCAA crowns when she claimed her second platform diving championship in three seasons. The Summit League produced its most successful NCAA Outdoor Track & Field Championships to date when its student-athletes won three titles. Southern Utah's Cameron Levins, one of three finalists for the prestigious Bowerman Award, won the 10,000-meter and 5,000-meter races and became The Summit League's first student-athlete to finish first in multiple events at a single championship. Oral Roberts' Jack Whitt gave the league its third title when he won the pole vault competition.

Two additional student-athletes collected NCAA statistical championships as Oakland's Reggie Hamilton became The Summit League's first men's basketball national scoring leader and Western Illinois' Sammy Marshall was softball's national leader in stolen bases per game.

The Summit League's growth and success is most evident at the annual Basketball Championships. Its 2012 event set a record for total attendance, including the all-time highest women's tournament figure and the third-best overall men's draw. The last four tournaments occupy each of the top four all-time tournament attendance totals in league history.

Popularity of The Summit League's marquee event reaches beyond the arena. The 2012 Basketball Championships marked the first time in league history that all 14 men's and women's tournament games appeared on national cable television. Since 2009, every tournament game has been televised, including the men's championship on ESPN2 and the women's title game on ESPNU.

Men's Basketball enjoyed a stellar season on and off the court. The Summit League finished 2011-12 with its highest RPI ranking in history, placing 16th among Division I conferences after peaking as high as No. 11 earlier in the season. A record five teams played in national postseason tournaments with one, Oakland, making the deepest run in league history with three wins and a semifinal appearance in the CollegiateInsider.com Tournament. The league-wide success translated to unprecedented fan support and an all-time best home attendance figure.

Throughout the 2011-12 season, The Summit League measured up well against men's basketball leagues across the country and finished with a .500 or better record against 15 of the 17 mid-major conferences. Against both Division I and overall non-league competition, The Summit League amassed its highest victory total and posted its best winning percentage on record. Under the national spotlight, The Summit League was one of only two conferences with multiple participating teams to post perfect records in nationally-televised BracketBuster games.

In women's athletics, The Summit League sent a record four teams to compete in national women's basketball postseason tournaments, including an all-time high three in the WNIT. The volleyball season saw The Summit League ranked as high as No. 13 among the 33 Division I leagues in the Pablo Ranking system.

With three national champions and the two-highest placing teams in league history at the NCAA Outdoor Track & Field Championships, The Summit League solidified itself as one of the national leaders in the sport. During the Indoor season, The Summit League finished ninth among men's Division I leagues in the final USTFCCCA conference index. A combined 12 men's and women's Indoor and Outdoor All-America honors went to Summit League student-athletes.

The Summit League emphasizes a balance of outstanding athletics and academics. The NCAA honored a record 15 Summit League teams for APR success that included finishing among the top 10 percent for their sport. Individually, North Dakota State's Amy Anderson continued to garner recognition as one of the NCAA's top student-athletes by earning the National Golf Coaches Association's Dinah Shore Trophy recognizing achievement in athletic performance, grade point average and community service. Similar honors went to IUPUI's men's soccer standout Perez Agaba, who earned selection to the Lowe's Senior CLASS All-America team. A total of seven Summit League student-athletes were named to their sport's Capital One Academic All-America teams, includes three first team honorees.

Origins and Evolution

In 1982, the present-day Summit League was formed by commissioner F.L. "Frosty" Ferzacca as the Association of Mid-Continent Universities with eight schools competing in five championship sports at the Division I level. Later known as the

One of the Summit League's most iconic moments came when Valparaiso's Bryce Drew hit "the shot", a game-winning three-pointer at the buzzer, to top Mississippi in the first round of the 1998 NCAA Tournament. Valpo's story captivated the nation as they became the league's second team to reach the "Sweet 16."

Mid-Continent Conference, The Summit League has grown to a combined enrollment of over 144,000 students at nine universities, four of which are based in top-58 U.S. metro populations (Detroit, Indianapolis, Kansas City and Omaha).

The Summit League's two newest members, South Dakota and Nebraska Omaha, compete together for the first time in 2012-13. Admitted to the league in 2009, USD completed its initial year of league competition in 2011-12 and is eligible for all championships this season. UNO joined the league in 2011 and is in its first year of Summit League competition before becoming fully eligible for all sport championships in 2015-16.

Current Summit League member institutions include: IPFW (Indiana-Purdue-Fort Wayne), IUPUI (Indiana University-Purdue University-Indianapolis), UMKC (University of Missouri-Kansas City), the University of Nebraska Omaha, North Dakota State University, Oakland University, the University of South Dakota, South Dakota State University, and Western Illinois University. Eastern Illinois University competes as an associate member in swimming and diving and men's soccer and Oral Roberts University is an associate member for men's soccer. These member institutions pride themselves on providing quality athletic, academic and social experiences for their student-athletes.

The Summit League sponsors 19 championship sports: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, men's and women's golf, men's and women's soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming and diving, men's and women's indoor track and field, men's and women's outdoor track and field, men's and women's tennis, and volleyball. The league champion receives an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament in all applicable sports.

Since its inception in 1982, The Summit League has had several transcendent moments on the national stage. In 1986, Cleveland State upset third-seeded Indiana in the first round of the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament on its way to a berth in the Sweet 16. A decade later, Valparaiso captured the nation's attention when Bryce Drew hit "the shot" to topple No. 4 seed Mississippi in an NCAA first-round game that sparked its 1998 Sweet 16 run.

More recently, Oral Roberts' baseball program finished the 2004 campaign with a national ranking and became the first Summit League school to reach an NCAA Super Regional in 2006. Three years later in 2009, North Dakota State became the league's first softball team to win an NCAA regional and advance to the Super Regional round. During the 2008-09 basketball season, South Dakota State's women's team was nationally-ranked throughout the year and capped its season with an NCAA Tournament first round victory.

The League has produced nine NCAA champions, four Olympic medalists and numerous All-Americans in the sports of track and field, swimming and diving and cross country. Several professional athletes and draft choices have come directly from The Summit League, including three Major League Baseball first round picks, a pair of NBA first round choices, and one WNBA selection. Former Summit Leaguer Kevin Duckworth (NBA) was a two-time all-star during his professional career.

To coincide with The Summit League's 30th Anniversary Season, the league released a list of its Top 30 Distinguished Contributors from the Division I era as selected by a panel of voters from member schools and media. Four individual NCAA champions and three Olympic medalists along with four NBA players and two World Series Champions headlined The Summit League's list of top student-athletes, coaches and administrators that was the jewel of the anniversary celebration.

The South Dakota State volleyball team enters its 47th season of competition with an 847-588 all-time record (.591 winning percentage) and with plenty of history already in the books.

In just its second year of Division I postseason eligibility, the South Dakota State volleyball team cruised through The Summit League regular and postseason to become the first team in school history to advance to an NCAA Division I Tournament.

Even though perennial power, and defending national champion Nebraska ended the Jackrabbits tournament run with a 3-0 win in front of a capacity crowd at historic NU Coliseum in Lincoln, Neb., the 2007 Jackrabbits put the program on the national map and laid the groundwork for the future success of the program.

A single match against the second ranked Cornhuskers may represent the only postseason experience at the D-I level, but the Jackrabbits brought with them a rich tradition of NCAA Tournament play at the Division II level.

Jackrabbit seniors Samantha Pearson, Kristina Martin and Amy Anderson raise The Summit League Championship trophy at The 2007 Summit League Tournament in Fort Wayne, Ind. The win secured the school's first-ever NCAA Division I Tournament berth.

Prior to making the move to D-I, the South Dakota State volleyball program made its mark first in the Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW) and then in the North Central Conference and in NCAA Division II athletics.

The Jackrabbits qualified for the NCAA Division II postseason five times in a six-year span between 1997 and 2002, compiling an 8-5 record in its five appearances, including a perfect 5-0 record in five-game matches.

The Jackrabbits reached the North Central Regional championship match four times, winning the 2001 crown to advance to the NCAA Division II Elite Eight in Allendale, Mich., where, under the direction of first-year head coach Andrew Palileo, the Jacks completed the season with a national runner-up finish.

Before the Jackrabbit volleyball program began competing at the D-II level in the NCC in 1982, SDSU won four AIAW State Championships.

Sue Yeager led the Jacks to the title in 1972, her final season on the bench for the Jacks, while Ruth Marske coached the Jackrabbits to AIAW State Titles in 1974, 1975, 1977 and 1980.

In addition to changing the games from 30 to 25 points, games became sets in 2008.

South Dakota State plays its home matches in Frost Arena, named after former SDSU coach and athletic director R.B. "Jack" Frost.

The facility, part of the Stanley J. Marshall HPER Center, now seats 6,107 fans for basketball, slightly fewer for volleyball. The SDSU-Augustana basketball game on Feb. 11, 1989, attracted an arena record 9,456 fans, a record which may never be broken since the new chair-back and courtside seating, added before the 1992-93 season, eliminated seats from the arena total.

R.B. "Jack" Frost

The improved seating represents just one in a series of changes which include a combined $3 million in Daktronics scoreboard equipment, added to Frost Arena and Coughlin-Alumni Stadium in the fall of 2005 and new chairback seats on the lower south side of the arena in the summer of 2012.

The Frost Arena portion includes a four-sided scoreboard with four ProStar® video screens measuring 12 feet by seven feet, two ProAd® displays measuring 60 feet long by four feet high and a full-color digital ProTable® scorers table, all of which can display real-time statistics. Frost Arena also received a newly repainted floor in 2007.

The State of South Dakota let bids totaling $3,374,115 for the facility following legislative approval of the project, with the bill signed by Governor Frank Farrar on Feb. 14, 1970. SDSU broke ground on site on Sept. 22, 1970 and Governor Richard Kneip placed the cornerstone on Oct. 2, 1971. Final cost of the building totaled $3,685,000, with the difference made up by gifts and items donated later.

The Jackrabbits played their first basketball game in Frost Arena on Feb. 2, 1973, and the first volleyball match on Sept. 21, 1974, a 2-0 win over Concordia-Moorhead. In 1994, the one-millionth fan passed through the Frost Arena turnstiles.

Born in Sheyenne North Dakota on April 26, 1907, Reuben B. "Jack" Frost graduated from Spring Grove, Minn., High School in 1923. He attended Luther College (Iowa) from 1924 to 1928, and received his PhD in Physical Education from the University of Oregon in 1958.

His coaching career began in 1928 at Glenwood, Minn., High School and later at Fergus Falls, Minn. In 1935, he became athletic director and coach at Bemidji State College.

Frost served as athletic director, professor and head of the physical education department at South Dakota State from 1947 until 1960. He compiled an 86-79 mark in seven seasons as Jackrabbit men's basketball coach from 1948-54.

Frost also worked as an international leader in recreation, health and physical education, serving in 1965 as the United States representative at the Fifth Session of the International Olympic Academy in Greece.

Dr. Frost established the Health, Physical Education and Recreation Graduate program at South Dakota State University in 1951.

An author, teacher, coach and administrator, Dr. Frost's influence on this university remains today. He mentored Dr. Stanley Marshall, in whose honor the HPER Center is named.

FACILITIES

South Dakota State University provides its student-athletes the opportunity to train and compete in some of the finest facilities in The Summit League. Within the past five years, SDSU added or enhanced several Jackrabbit athletic facilities, including:

- Construction of new on-campus baseball and softball competition fields;
- Construction of a new equestrian center;
- Installation of new video boards and scoreboards at Coughlin-Alumni Stadium and Frost Arena;
- Completion of a practice soccer field

SDSU further enhanced its student-athlete facilities in 2009 with the completion of the Dykhouse Student-Athlete Center. Located in the north end zone of Coughlin-Alumni Stadium, the Dykhouse Student-Athlete Center houses an academic center for use by all Jackrabbit student-athletes, as well as new locker room and training facilities for the SDSU football team.

Construction on the Dykhouse Student-Athlete Center marks the first stage of a master plan to dramatically modernize athletic facilities at SDSU.

The $6 million donated by Sioux Falls bankers Dana Dykhouse and T. Denny Sanford in the fall of 2007 set in motion the construction of the first major athletic building on campus since Frost Arena in 1973.

Future additions to the Dykhouse Student-Athlete Center, which would be included in a comprehensive athletic facilities master plan, would house offices, meeting rooms and locker facilities for all outdoor sports at South Dakota State University.

The Dykhouse Student-Athlete Center opened in the fall of 2009

EXCELLENCE

With an enrollment of 12,725 students in the fall of 2011, South Dakota State University remains the state's largest institution of higher education. Students from all 50 states and more than 40 nations attend SDSU, a public, land-grant institution.

SDSU granted nearly 70,000 degrees since its charter in 1881, with degrees offered through these nine colleges:

- Agriculture and Biological Sciences
- Arts and Sciences
- Education and Counseling
- Engineering
- Family and Consumer Sciences
- General Studies
- Nursing
- Pharmacy
- Graduate School

SDSU also offers degree programs through the University Center in Sioux Falls. The Office of Continuing and Extended Education coordinates evening, RDTN, Internet and off-campus courses.

SDSU offers more than 200 majors, minors and options, with more than 2,500 different course offerings. Students can choose from more than 200 clubs and organizations active on campus.

Master's degrees can be earned in more than 30 areas, with doctorates available in eight fields.

SDSU maintains a student-faculty ratio of 18:1.

The University as a whole employs more than 2,000 people, with a total operating budget of nearly $288 million in fiscal year 2011.

An artist's rendering of Honors Hall, one of four residence halls currently under construction. Scheduled for completion in August 2013, the new halls add more than 800 beds for freshman and sophomores

South Dakota State continues to experience unprecedented growth, both in enrollment and building projects.

Projects recently completed or currently under way include:

- The $48 million, 144,000-square-foot Avera Health and Science Center
- Daktronics Engineering Hall, a 30,000-square-foot building that houses an expansion within the College of Engineering
- The $6 million Dykhouse Student-Athlete Center
- A $7.8 million campus wellness center
- Union Dining Expansion, a 20,000 square foot expansion to the student union that adds 350 new seats and three nationally branded dining options at a cost of $8.3 million
- Four new residence halls currently under construction; Southwest Hall, Southeast Hall, Northeast Hall and Honors Hall add housing for more than 800 freshman and sophomores at a cost of $45.7 million

For more information on the new residence halls and the Student Union dining expansion, log onto www.sdstate.edu/campus/expansion

The SDSU Foundation's "It Starts With State" campaign, a comprehensive fund-raising initiative designed to raise $200 million by the end of the 2012, with pledges and payments extending beyond 2012, continues to identify additional facility projects and enhancements to academic programs.

Every college, department and unit stands to benefit from "It Starts With State" campaign. The impact of scholarships, endowments, facility enhancements, professorships, endowed chairs and the Funds for Excellence reaches every academic college and program on campus.

INNOVATIVE

The first building of the Innovation Campus opened in 2008

SDSU offers the most undergraduate research opportunities in the state

The Innovation Campus at South Dakota State University marks the state's first and only university-affiliated research park. Located on 125 acres just east of campus, it provides an environment that fosters partnerships among the University, business, government and the community to grow the sciences and technology-based economy.

SDSU boasts the highest percentage of undergraduates involved in research of any South Dakota public university. SDSU is large enough to offer competitive research opportunities, yet small enough to foster student faculty learning opportunities.

Major areas of research at SDSU include:

- Engineering and technology research into photovoltaic devices, nanotechnology, materials science, wind power, surface transportation systems, signal and image processing, water treatment, computer sciences, software engineering and computational science and statistics
- Agricultural sciences research on crops and livestock, including food manufacturing, bio-based energy, economics and horticulture
- Management and conservation of natural resources
- Health sciences, nutritional sciences and wellness research programs in pharmaceutical sciences, nutrition and exercise physiology
- Renewable energy research develops bio-based energy technologies, while promoting diversification and environmental sustainability of America's agriculture
- The federal government awarded SDSU and six other universities $69 million in federal funds over the next five years to serve as Vanguard centers for the National Children's Study. The NCS studies more than 100,000 children from across the country from conception to age 21

South Dakota State offers 21 varsity sports with Jackrabbit teams competing at the NCAA Division I level. Football competes in the Division I Football Championship Subdivision in the Missouri Valley Football Conference, while 18 sports compete in The Summit League. Wrestling competes in the Western Wrestling Conference, while equestrian currently competes in the National Collegiate Equestrian Association.

Evolution of a Nickname

Two theories exist as to how and why SDSU's athletic teams became known as the Jackrabbits. Most believe that the name "Jackrabbits" came from a story and cartoon sketch that appeared in a Minneapolis newspaper following a 1905 football game between the University of Minnesota and South Dakota State College. Many believe that a reporter for the newspaper, knowing of the preponderance of jackrabbits in the Brookings area, wrote that the SDSC team was as quick as jackrabbits. Many people believe that the school adopted the Jackrabbits as its official nickname from that beginning.

The other theory about the origin of the nickname came in "The Jackrabbit", SDSU's yearbook. A poem in the 1907 yearbook puts forth the idea that the yearbook is called "The Jackrabbit" because a group of juniors wished to immortalize themselves by changing the name of the yearbook. Athletic teams followed suit, adopting the nickname.

Prior to the adoption of the Jackrabbit nickname, fans knew the school athletic teams as the Barn Yard Cadets, which made sense, because the school went by the name of South Dakota State College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts in 1907.

The Jackrabbit can run at speeds of 30-to-35 miles per hour, with bursts up to 45, making it the second fastest animal in North America, second only to the pronghorn antelope, which can run at speeds up to 60 miles per hour.

Properly speaking, Jackrabbits should not be called rabbits but hares, with longer feet and longer ears than rabbits. Most hares live in open country, whereas rabbits - like cottontails - live in brushy habitats.

Jackrabbits can grow up to two feet long; weigh from six to nine pounds, with ears up to eight inches long. Hares do not eat meat; they eat tender herbs in the summer and woody twigs and bark in the winter.

COMMUNITY

Located in Brookings, a growing community of about 22,000 people, South Dakota State University sits 20 miles west of the Minnesota border and 50 miles north of Sioux Falls in east-central South Dakota, Brookings sits at the intersection of U.S. Highway 14 and Interstate 29.

Brookings and the surrounding area feature tremendous recreational and cultural opportunities. The city features a vibrant downtown area with shopping, nightlife opportunities and a new interactive children's museum. Brookings also maintains an extensive park and recreational trail system, with two 18-hole golf courses, and serves as a gateway to first-class fishing and hunting areas throughout eastern South Dakota.

South Dakota State University also houses several facilities, including museums and gardens, which highlight South Dakota history and heritage.

The South Dakota Art Museum houses several collections, including early Sioux Indian tribal art, the famed Harvey Dunn paintings of pioneer life and the exclusive Vera Way Marghab linens. The State Agricultural Heritage Museum transformed the former Stock Judging Pavilion into a home for exhibits that record and preserve the agrarian heritage of South Dakota.

The 70-acre McCrory Gardens and South Dakota Arboretum, located south and east of campus, provide a beautiful setting for area residents and tourists to enjoy a stroll through the radiant colors and fragrances of one of the top-10 small ornamental gardens in the nation. Adding to its honors, McCrory Gardens earned the distinction of being named an All-American Display Garden, one of only 13 in the nation.

The community houses several recognizable companies including Rainbow Play Systems, Minnesota Mining and Manufacturing (3M), Larson Manufacturing and Daktronics, a leading manufacturer of scoreboards and display systems.

The South Dakota Art Museum is free and open to the public

McCrory Gardens honors Professor S.A. McCrory, who headed the College of Agriculture and Biological Sciences from 1947 until his death in 1964
